

How to Vote for Incarcerated DC Residents: DC General Election 2020

You have the right to vote in the November 2020 General Election. DC recently passed an emergency law that restores the right to vote for District residents incarcerated in jail or prison serving a felony sentence.

To register to vote, or update your name or address, contact the Board of Elections (BOE) by phone 202-727-2525 or by mail (1015 Half Street, SE, Suite 750 Washington, DC 20003). Your registration must be received by October 13, 2020.

- If you are currently incarcerated in the federal Bureau of Prisons (BOP), you should use your DC home address to register to vote. You should use the BOP facility where you are located as your mailing address.
- If you are currently incarcerated at the DC Jail, when registering to vote, you may use your DC home address or the address of the DC Jail if you have been incarcerated at the DC Jail for at least 30 days.
