

How to Vote for Incarcerated DC Residents: DC General Election 2020

You have the right to vote in the November 2020 General Election. DC recently passed an emergency law that restores the right to vote for eligible District residents incarcerated in jail or prison serving a felony sentence.

To register to vote, or update your name or address, fill out the attached voter registration application, and mail to the Board of Elections (BOE) (1015 Half Street, SE, Suite 750 Washington, DC 20003). Your registration must be received by October 13, 2020. If you have any questions, contact BOE by phone at 202-727-2525.

- If you are currently incarcerated in the federal Bureau of Prisons (BOP), you should use your DC home address to register to vote, which is your DC address prior to your incarceration (line 4 on the voter registration application). You should use the BOP facility where you are located as your mailing address to receive your ballot (line 5 on the voter registration application).
- If you are currently incarcerated at the DC Jail, when registering to vote, you may use your DC home address or the address of the DC Jail if you have been incarcerated at the DC Jail for at least 30 days.
